The Sphinx

Visit the Valley Temple, housing the mysterious Sphinx, located in what was once a quarry to the east of Chephren's pyramid. One theory suggests this Pharaoh's workers shaped the body into a lion and gave it their king's face, as a guardian of the necropolis.

Necropolis of Sakkara

The Step Pyramid of King Zoser at Sakkara is the oldest known of Egypt's 107 pyramids & the first freestanding stone structure in the world. In the area, the tombs belonging to the nobles of the past show the beauty and excellence of Ancient Egyptian art on their walls and give an insight in the daily life of Ancient Egypt.

Dier El Madina

Valley of the Noble's tombs, Dier El Madina, the site of a very special workman's village, whose craftsmen built and decorated the tombs of the Pharaohs in the Valley of the Kings & the Temple of Hatshepsut.

The West Bank of Luxor

Visit Valley of the Kings, with its royal tombs, King Tut's tomb, Ramses the Six. This is followed by a visit to the Temple of Madinat Habu and on the way back stop at the Colossus of Memnon.

Temples of Karnak & Luxor

The Temple of Karnak was built over more than a thousand years by generations of Pharaohs. The great “Hypostyle Hall” is an incredible forest of giant pillars, covering an area larger than the whole of Notre Dame Cathedral. Proceed with your Egyptologist guide on a tour of the strikingly graceful Temple of Luxor dedicated to the god Amun.

Temples of Abu Simbel

Built by the Great Ramses II, Egypt’s longest ruling pharaoh, Abu Simbel is one of the most recognizable images in the country. Actually two temples, namely the Great Temple of Ra-Harakhte, fronted by the four colossal statues of Ramses II and the Temple of Hathor, dedicated to Ramses’ favorite wife Queen Nefertari.

Kom Ombo Temple

Visit the twin temple of Kom Ombo. One side of the temple is dedicated to the Crocodile God Sobek, God of Fertility and Creator of the World. The other side is dedicated to the Falcon God Horus, also known as the Elder.

The Tombs at El Kab

Fewer than one percent of travelers who visit Egypt come to see the tombs at El Kab. They have spectacular color inside, and walking through the village on the way there is a wonderful local experience.
