14 Day The Hemingway Africa Wing Safari

CELEBRITY HOSTED – YOUR FLEXIBLE INCLUSIONS DATES — 14 DAY ITINERARY

Such is Africa's allure: that a bright fellow like Hemingway would lie in his tent, homesick before he'd even parted from a place that had come to seem more like home than home itself. We're told these days to stick to the now, and the here, but Hemingway—like many of us lovers of Africa—knew that sometimes you can't micromanage your passions.

The Hemingway Wing Safari—a cherished favourite of Micato staff—is a tribute, not only to Africa’s tendency to grab hold of our hearts, but also to the old-fashioned and cozy safaris of Hemingway’s time, with three tented camps (a little more luxurious than in Ernest’s day, but he was never one to avoid intelligently offered luxury), good looks at East Africa’s most legendary game parks (and a couple of lesser-known gems), and five swooping flights that bring us into great intimacy with Africa’s landscapes.

Day 2-3 Arrive Africa: US – Nairobi

We'll be met by our Micato Safari Director and whisked away to a place Hemingway spent many Hemingwayesque hours, the Fairmont Norfolk Hotel.

We'll visit the Giraffe Centre and the illuminating National Museum, pay our respects at the newly renovated home of Karen Blixen (who, Hemingway said more than once, should have received the Nobel Prize for literature instead of him).

And we'll have a welcoming lunch or dinner at Lavington, the home of Micato's founders, the renowned storytellers Felix and Jane Pinto.

Day 4-5 Africa: Nairobi - Samburu National Reserve

We fly 200-plus miles north to the Samburu, in many ways the embodiment of the Africa we've been carrying around in our imagination since we were children (it was the home, for instance, of Elsa the lioness, of Born Free fame). Nurtured by the Ewaso Nyiro River, the Samburu is rugged, calmly inviting, and enveloped in the air of remote Old Africa, scented by acacia.

Our camp in the Samburu is a classic: Larsens Camp, set in the riverine forest of the Ewaso Nyiro, much frequented by friendly elephants, whose meanderings we can watch in comfort from the verandas of our airy, superbly designed tents.*

Game drives out of Larsens introduce us to the Samburu's sometimes almost shocking plentitude of large (and cunningly small) mammals, who are just the headliners in a fabulous cast of very natural, very intriguing characters. Some travellers, having seen and appreciated the Big Five, begin a more difficult search for the Little Five, whose identities we will divulge a little east of here, in Tanzania Spectacular.)

Larsens Camp

samburu, kenya

Another beloved classic, Larsens Camp is bordered on one side by the life-giving Ewaso Nyiro River and on the other side by nothing but pristine nature.

Larsens' 20 ample tents are bathed with light and excitement at sunrise. Each tent stands on a plinth of natural stone, and all have en-suite bathrooms and are designed and decorated in a delightfully chic safari style.

Day 6-7 Africa: Samburu National Reserve – The Maasai Mara

South by air to the Maasai Mara, the northern reaches of the Serengeti–Maasai Mara cosystem, earth's richest wildlife habitat. Our base for explorations in the fabled Mara is the Fairmont Mara Safari Club, recently voted among the Top 20 in Travel+Leisure's consequential World's Best Hotels list.

Surrounded on three sides by the life-giving Mara River, the Mara Safari Club is a masterpiece of appropriate and generously luxurious design. And it's a great jumping-off place for extraordinary game drives in the mixed land- and waterscapes of the Mara.

We'll visit a traditional Maasai village as we wind our way through this natural wonderland, the kind of place that moved Hemingway to write, "I loved this country and I felt at home and where a man feels at home, outside of where he's born, is where he's meant to go."

“How can one convey the power of Serengeti?” asked Cyril Connolly in The Evening Colonnade. “It is an immense, limitless lawn, under a marquee of sky. . . .

The light is dazzling, the air delectable; kopjes rise out of the grass at far intervals, some wooded; the magic of the American prairie here blends with the other magic of the animals as they existed before man.”

The Serengeti sometimes does remind us of the American prairie, but in truth it can't be compared with any other place on earth. Its kopje-dotted landscape, its vast and billowing skies, and especially its astounding wealth of wildlife make it one-of-a-orgeous-kind. Flying via Nairobi and Arusha, we reach our base, Migration Camp, on the hippo-haven Grumeti River.

Known for its superb tents (which, one traveller wrote, “have only one thing in common with normal tents: canvas”) and its dramatic setting in rocky outcrops, Migration Camp is revered for its tranquillity (something of a Serengeti specialty).

Migration Camp

serengeti, tanzania

Perched alluringly on a kopje above the rolling hills and plains of the Serengeti, Migration Camp is a haven of sumptuousness amidst the raw splendour of the surrounding bush.

Its roomy tents are superbly secluded and blend in with their site above the Grumeti River.

Migration Camp's split-level lounge, cigar bar, restaurants, and swimming pool remind us of what it's pleasant to think of as the delightfully, almost innocently decadent days of the past.

Day 10-11 Africa: The Serengeti - Ngorongoro Crater

Some of us may wish to visit the Olduvai Gorge before heading to one of the earth's wonders, the great, green, animal-nurturing caldera of a once catastrophically cranky, now beneficently mellow volcano, the Ngorongoro.

We're up a little in elevation here on the mammoth crater's rim, in Vail and Aspen altitudes of well over 7,000 feet, and our luxurious and imaginative cabins of Exploreans Ngorongoro Lodge are just an exhilarating drive from the lush and almost park-like floor (but which, make no mistake, is an animal, not a human, kingdom). Being up that high, figuratively and actually, we may recall Isak Dinesen's words in Out of Africa, "The air of the African highlands went to my head like wine, I was all the time slightly drunk with it."

Exploreans Ngorongoro Lodge ngorongoro, tanzania

Smartly, strategically placed in 50 acres of lush, Untrammeled Tanzanian bush near Ngorongoro's rim, Exploreans features deliciously private luxury log cabin suites kitted out with stunning modern wooden floors and furnishings, an open fireplace, and a private viewing terrace for taking in the transcendent early-morning radiance of Tanzania's highlands.

Day 12 Africa: Ngorongoro Crater – Lake Manyara

Our guy Ernest Hemingway thought Manyara "the loveliest lake in Africa," and, based from our private chalets at the Lake Manyara Escarpment Lodge, regally perched on a cliff, we'll have some tranquil time here to find out why.

The lake is a birder's heaven (it's frequented by 300 migratory avians), and the water from its Crater Highlands-supplied springs makes it a forested redoubt for all the most glamorous large mammals, including the famed Manyara tree-climbing lions. (It's a little irreverent, but tree-lounging might be a better description.)
