New Zealand: Queenstown, Hawke's Bay, Auckland

Millbrook Resort, Queenstown

One of Queenstown's original resort complexes, Millbrook is famed for its international level golf course, its prime location – just 15 minutes drive from Queenstown – and its capacity for a large number of guests. The resort's many accommodation options are set around Millbrook's spectacular par 72 championship golf course, designed by New Zealand's renowned master golfer, Sir Bob Charles.

The complex consists of villas, suites and cottages of many sizes, dotted around the course, each taking advantage of alpine views. Most of the rooms are in a traditional country style with tartans, butter yellows and eggshell blues predominating. The resort can cater for over 400 guests and the top-class facilities, such as the newly complete spa and pool and tennis courts mean there's plenty to do – even if you're not a keen golfer.

Dining ranges from the Clubhouse Restaurant – traditional southland cuisine – to an award winning Japanese restaurant. All cafes and restaurants enjoy stunning views over the golf course. Queenstown is close enough for a dinner excursion and there are many cafes and top-class restaurants to choose from.

Historic Arrowtown is even closer – just 5 minutes drive and offers two award-winning restaurants and a boutique theatre where you can sip on a wine or nibble on a pizza while you watch an art-house movie.

The Farm at Cape Kidnappers, Hawke's Bay

'The Farm' promises to be an iconic, 'not to be missed' experience. Cape Kidnappers is set on a 5,000-acre sheep and cattle farm which rolls along cliffs that plunge dramatically to the sea. On the exterior the lodge resembles a cluster of
