7 Day Dubai – Desert Dunes Meet Modern Metropolis

CUSTOM ITINERARY – YOUR FLEXIBLE INCLUSIONS DATES — 5 - 7 DAY ITINERARY

Desert Dunes Meet Modern Metropolis - Feast Under the Arabian Stars Where a Camel Will Take You to an Unforgettable Bedu Tent Experience

7 Day Itinerary: Dubai

Bordered by a golden desert on the Arabian Peninsula, the glittering skyline of Dubai is a 21st century marvel. Once a pearl-diving and trading center, the city has transformed into a major Middle Eastern metropolis, boasting countless architectural monuments, including Burj Khalifa, the world's tallest skyscraper.

“All sunshine makes the desert.” – Arabian Proverb

Amidst its bustling city life, ancient Arab tradition is still preserved within narrow, winding streets lined with centuries-old spice and gold souks. From enchanting moonlight cruises on historic dhows to thrilling desert safaris, experience a fascinating journey through the City of Gold.

Today, visit a selection of Dubai's modern landmarks in a tour of the city. Opened in 1998, the magnificent white-stone Jumeirah mosque features twin minarets alongside a crown-like dome and serves as the city's only mosque open to non-Muslim visitors. Drive past modern palaces sprawled along the stunning coast before traveling to the 19th century Bastakia quarter with its historic wind-tower houses.

Built in 1799 to defend the city from sea attacks, the nearby Al Fahidi Fort now stands as the Dubai Museum, recording the city's past as an important pearl-diving and trading center.

Continue your journey by abra, a private water taxi, and cross the sparkling Dubai Creek to tour the modern part of the city.
