Our first recommendation: Berlin/Potsdam:

Background information - Berlin:

- Berlin - is today Germany's dynamic, cosmopolitan and creative capital. East meets West, tradition and innovation coexist in the metropolis at the heart of a changing Europe.

Germany's largest city is a land of opportunities waiting to be seized in areas as wide and diverse as media and entertainment, culture, research and development, science and industry.

- Berlin - has regarded itself as a city of knowledge and culture since the days of Friedrich the Great in the 18th century. The political and cultural developments of the 19th and 20th century are visible throughout Berlin's cityscape, reflecting both the history of architecture and various approaches to dealing with the consequences of war and destruction.

Guided Tours: Berlin's worth-seeing sights.

- Berlin is an exciting city of contrasts. Forever evolving it can be explored in a countless variety of historical and modern attractions.
- The city has no definite center and pockets of attractions are dotted all over. The densest array of sights lies to the east of the Brandenburg Gate, on either side of Unter den Linden.
- As a highlight the guests will have lunch at the dome of the Berliner Reichstag (seat of Parliament), with its large viewing terrace for a breathtaking view over Berlin.

Background information - Potsdam:

- Potsdam - The capital city of the State of Brandenburg is a city with a splendid cultural life, a location for enterprise, science and education, as well as a fine place to live.
- Potsdam - is more than 1,000 years old. Located along the banks of the Havel river and the surrounding lakes, Potsdam has a lot to offer: palaces, gardens, and numerous monuments - all concealed in the midst of a unique cultural landscape - as well as a scientific environment which is unparalleled in all of Germany.

Accommodation - Schlosshotel Cecilienhof Potsdam:

- The beautiful Cecilienhof was erected between 1914 and 1917 in accordance with the wishes of the Emperor's son Wilhelm von Preussen and Princess Cecilie. Cecilienhof attained world recognition as the site chosen for the negotiations of the victorious allies in the summer of 1945. Truman, Churchill and Stalin negotiated the 'Potsdam Agreement' right here.
- Facts: 41 guest rooms and suites, Schlossrestaurant with garden terrace and chimney, 7 private Salons for meetings and banquets.

Activity schedule:

Guided Tour: Castle Sanssouci / Park Sanssouci:

- The main attraction in Potsdam is the world famous Castle Sanssouci. It was built by Fredrick the Great and then expanded by his successors over a period of 100 years. The castle consists of twelve spacious, magnificently furnished rooms which still can be visited.
- With a garden area around 300 ha, Sanssouci Park is the largest park in the area. There are beautiful Dutch, French and Sicilian gardens as well as a dark, nordic garden.

Golf tournament: “Extravaganza Championships“

- There are many high quality 18-hole-golf-courses in the area Berlin/Potsdam.
- The VIP guests compete in the “Extravaganza Championships“.
- The sporting event is followed by the presentation ceremony and a “winners dinner“.
- For an actual booking of a golf-course in Germany, it needs the recommendation of a “Home Club“.

Dragon boat race

- A dragon boat race is an event with a high value of adventure and experience.
- Team spirit under the sign of the dragon.
- It is possible to run this incentive as a challenge (boat vs. boat race) as well as an “all-in-one boat” experience.

Guided Tour: Experience Berlin/Potsdam by boat

- Experience the beautiful scenery of Berlin and Potsdam from the “other side”.
- A highly interesting tour, across distributaries of the river Havel, through channels and floodgates and finally on the river Spree, you reach Germany's capital city by boat. Wards, gardens and bridges, water-gates and historical as well as modern buildings can be seen.
